Enrollment and Executive Coaching at Rutgers Online

Rutgers wants to ensure that you have the tools you need to succeed in earning your degree. For that, we’ve established two sets of advisors – Enrollment Coaches and Executive Coaches – to help you through the various stages of your education. Your Enrollment Coach will help at the start of your journey by answering any questions about an online degree, how to enroll, and what resources are available to prospective students. Then, once you’ve enrolled, your Executive Coach will support you as you acclimate to your fully online graduate program and ensure that you have the tools you need to be set up for success as you earn your degree and beyond. Below are the specifics of each Coach’s role.

Enrollment Coaching

After you complete a request for information on our webpage, your Rutgers Online Enrollment Coach will contact you to guide you through the decision-making and enrollment processes for Rutgers Online. In general, your Coach will help you to:

- Answer any questions about an online degree
- Identify your best program fit, based on your long-term goals
- Navigate the admissions process and connect you with campus resources
- Prepare for a successful educational experience

Pre-decision Support

Going back to school is a big decision, and your Enrollment Coach will help you:

- Navigate the obstacles that may prevent you from starting school (career demands, financial stress, health and support, commitment to graduation, childcare needs, etc.)
- Clarify educational and career goals, so you can choose the program that works best for you
- Develop a plan and timeline for completing an application and enrolling in classes

Application & Financial Aid Support

Confused about what the application involves and how to go about getting financial aid? Your Enrollment Coach will:

- Help you organize and submit the documents necessary for your application
- Show you how to track your progress through the various stages of the application process
- Connect you to financial aid resources

Executive Coaching

Once you’ve enrolled in a degree program, Rutgers Online offers you the opportunity to take advantage of a valuable resource - personal Executive Coaching. Free of charge, you can meet with your Executive Coach whenever necessary to discuss academic and personal goals, learn more about the resources available to Rutgers students, find out how to manage your time and improve performance, and address any questions or concerns that may come up during your pursuit of a degree.

What is Executive Coaching?

- Executive-style coaching tailored to professional students
- A proven partner to help you discover, track and achieve your personal, educational, and career goals
- A supporter to answer questions and connect you to valuable Rutgers resources

Common areas of focus in coaching conversations:

- Time management
- Career growth or discovery
- Financial planning
- Academic study habits, skills, and resources
- Personal support network
- Reducing stress
- Motivation
- Connecting students to available resources
